

New Perspectives on the Archaeology of the Holy Land

Archaeological Workshop

Faculty of Theology, Room 206

Friday (18 October 2019, 2 – 6 p.m.)

Words of Welcome (Prof. Dr. Dr. Bernd U. Schipper)

The Emergence of Early Phoenicia

Prof. Dr. Gunnar Lehmann (Ben Gurion University, Beersheba)

3.15-3.30 p.m. Coffee Break

The Concepts of 'City' and 'State' in the Archaeology of Ancient Israel

Prof. Dr. David Schloen (The Oriental Institute of the University of Chicago)

A Computational Perspective on Biblical Archaeology

Dr. Sandra Schloen (University of Chicago)

Saturday (19 October 2019, 9 – 12 a.m.)

New Discoveries from Roman Jewish Galilee: Tel Rekhesh, el-Araj, Shikhin and Yodfat

Prof. Dr. Mordechai Aviam (Kinneret College for Galilean Archaeology)

10.15-10.30 a.m. Coffee Break

Observations on the Cultural Relevance of "Borders" for Our Understanding of Ancient Galilee. A Few Case Studies

Prof. Dr. Jürgen Zangenberg (University of Leiden)